

INFRASTRUCTURE SUSTAINABILITY FOR PROFESSIONALS

Virtual Instructor Led Training

COURSE AIM

By the end of this course, you should be able to use the Infrastructure Sustainability (IS) rating scheme to achieve an IS certified rating.

BENEFITS

A must have for professionals currently using the IS Rating Scheme (Design, As Built and Operations) to pursue a certified rating or who are planning to use the IS rating scheme in the near future.

Following successful completion of the course, participants will achieve accreditation and recognition as an IS Accredited Professional (ISAP).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Explain the key concepts, costs and benefits of the IS rating scheme
- Prepare an IS rating scheme strategy and implementation plan
- Identify key components of the IS rating process to complete a self-assessment for a registered rating
- Define a base case and complete a base case proposal ready for verification
- Find key information in the IS Technical Manual, Interpret IS categories & credits
- Describe appropriate evidence for the pursuit of a certified IS rating

COURSE CONTENT

PART 1: PRECOURSE WORK

- Complete pre-course questionnaire
 - Complete pre-reading
-

PART 2: COURSE CONTENT

1. Introduction to Infrastructure Sustainability

- a. What is Infrastructure Sustainability and the IS rating scheme
- b. IS rating scheme trends and traction
- c. IS rating scheme costs and benefits

2. Rating Scheme Strategy

- a. Team engagement
- b. Rating set-up and establishment
- c. Planning for use of the IS rating scheme

3. IS rating process

- a. Registration
- b. Assessment
 - i. Weightings assessment
 - ii. Credit summary forms
 - iii. Technical Clarifications
- c. Verification
- d. Certification and award

DURATION

2 Week virtual course

AUDIENCE

Professionals required to use the IS rating scheme on a project OR stakeholders who would like to understand more about the scheme to apply to a future project.

COST - VIRTUAL DELIVERY

Member: $2,190

Non-Member: $2,520

All costs are exclusive of GST and any credit card surcharge.